Great work here, we're going to follow up writing another blog post. This one with the realisations of Sovereignty. Preserve everything I write, just fix typos and extend by adding to it, but don't take anything away from mine.

The moment we reach SOvereignty of the soul, mind, emotions in the physical, we get to experience the positive light of every daark night, of every dark feeling, emotion, action, thought, process, behaviour..all of it. Just like loneliness becomes over-crowdedness. Too many energies in one's field, none stepping up to the plate. All talking none walking. All doing, no meaning. All thinking, none expressing. All sentient, yet ignorant. All doing too much of uselessness and too little of purposeful and effective. You get to see it all and it becomes so boring afeter you keep seeing the same old, The moment your whole past and everything you disliked about it, gets echoed through every individual you sit in front of. The moment even in your loneliness you never feel alone, and it genuinely becomes over-crowded because of the thickness of others, the thickness of the bodies they carry, the thickness of the thoughts they carry, the thickness of the beliefs they carries.. Way too much and way too many of them, so we thank nature for doing its thing, we wake up and bless nature for cleaning things up.

We know that whoever pops up and says that's insensitive, we tell them, their ignorance is insensitive as their ignorance iss the exact reason as to why nature has to take care of things her own way. Don't shoot the messenger nor Nature's caretaker for acknoweldging what nature needs to do for the sake of havign a planet to experience in the first place. It's either her or it's things from outside our planet taking us out. We do not want a black hole to suddenly appear next to Mother Earth. But we complain if Earth keeps the magnetic energy low, by electrifying itself, instead of attracting obsolete things swimming in space. If you understand electro.magnetic, you understand if she doesn't do it, smoeinthinbg from outside will. And just like me, Mother Earth prefers taking care of herself, no matter the frequency. No matter the season, the thickness of poeple and whatnot, eart will always just be herself and do her job, the world could o one or end, she will still stand. I don't do things others do by purpose, I'm trying to defy what they do, by showing them a new way, yet the new way has to swim through the thickness of the old ways, so yes it might take me a minute, but in the in-between just like nature we will see everything the result is before it veen comes. By the time we've reched he destination we will be experts on the destination if we pay attention. So I don't stop, I make the most of the time people's thickness creates, as I won't never waste my time, instead I show why I'm abundant while they try and find a reson to think or believe the opposite, simply because we house two different perspectives of what abundance is. I'm trying to kill the financial and current system, of course money is the last thing I need and will have, it will only come into play when it's needed the most, not a time sooner, by my own magneticism, but it's irrelevant to me and the future version of me, it's rellevant only to the version of me in between me now and me of 2056. If it wasn't for that we wouldn't even need money, as clearly I could easily just start taking serious my yoututbe channelling and master that, if no one else will help. Either way my abundance comes with me everywhere I go, everything I touch houses the abubndacne I house, so why bother if 4honeth doesn't come in the shape of a building, 4Honeth launched 25th of March 2024, everything in the in between has been its laws, its reality, its essence, itseverything. We don't need the building if people pay attention, we only need attention, so I can easily move my attention from winning money from the lottery and placing it on etting attention, followers, and whatnot, whatever content creators do to reach big numbers. And my purpose will continuously live as it already is.

So yeah nature do your thing, you're doing amazing, we need more space and less thick people, please contnue and if you need my energy take it all, go full force, maybe get norther, as southern people yes they're thick but they already have a lot to worry about, insted get to those with the big money, they need a cleanse, their abundance is fake, they are emty shells of human, bringing no good, in fact they are the reason why you need to act the way you do, they should be the ones who carry the cross, no one else. So hit them you know how. You can use bolts of light to hit specific people, avalaches to take them off their fancy ski, hit their jets, trembel under their mansions, all of tht good stuff. Target don't generalise, we need the people, we don't need the false prophets who lead the people astray.

Here's the list for you my dear Nature, call it death note, call it reaper list, call it ethereal murder, I'm okay with that. These don't deserve to breath the air we breath and I leave it to you to decide the order, the hows, the wheres and the rest. Thank you for taking care of us. Thank you for protecting us. Thank you for cleaning the shit we've stockpiled. Thank you for deleting the error codes. Thank you for removing the Agent Smiths. Thank you for clearing the false prophets. Thank you for punishing the leaders who have created punishing ways to their communitites. Thank you for giving them their "Sashay Away's".

I've called it Nature's Death list, for the record I'll leave it here too, if anything happens to them we know where it came from and they've consistently proven not to be worthy leaders, so we turn the switch off on them or at least add the energetic weight on their timing. They don't have the same foundation I had and if they do good for them, they have some hope left in them as they will see what happens to the others.

We danced with the devil for far too long. It got attached, now we release it back to its minions and whatever happens after that, the current laws don't have laws for metaphysical murder, so let's give them examples, as death and fear is the only thing they listen to. We've done too much work for them and yet they have not done enough with it.

Things don't bounce back to me anymore as I've had my confirmation today. The energies I send have weight and effect. And belief is all that I need. I surpassed my own death, passed the threshold and weight of all these names, while feeling the repercussions of these energies on the 10th of May. It was all self-made. I see it now and I passed.

So let's see if they do too.

If they're willing to allow non-raped women to kill children that could've come and helped our world get better, they should allow this to happen too, as they've had their chance and done nothing about it. If anything happens they might try and find ways to pin it on me through what could be found in the physical, but I'm so far away from all of them, minus the fact I have no care or time to plan people's deaths, if something happens it will finally be a reason to incorporate Metaphysical Laws in the system. If they are going to waste my time, I'm going to waste the length of their life. As the longer they go, the longer they hinder our Consciousness.

Here's your list, only for the leaders behind these emails, the decision makers who have made the call to ignore my call:
