

3D Metaphysical Analysis

Emotions highly influence both how much money one makes and what they love and desire. If one's emotional foundation isn't stable (stabilised yr 19 - 27 Sacral Codes), which relies upon our Foundation/Root Chakra's development and 5 senses' attunement.

Money and Wealth inevitably highlight their antonyms in polarity, which can hinder and create loneliness, widening one's fears and repulsiveness to higher energies. Emotions lead through love and desires the relationships, regardless if aware to the emotions felt, yet an abundance of emotions and love gets found and is dependent to the relationships or lack thereof in their lives. Purpose is found in everything but higher energies if not as tools, not embodiments.

Every end varies in each individuals, who may have also overlappings of the 5D, like devotion to something, yet not all branches are homogeneously round. Similar observations on the other graphs too.

4 Planes of Engagement

- Physical/Spiritual: Physical as spiritual being
- Emotional
- Mental
- Spiritual/Physical: Spirit fully grounded in physical

3 Planes of Existence

- Wholeness: Ethereal to Obityary
- Vision: Ethereal(ideas) to imagination(astros) to Physical exteriors to our own body.
- Embodiment: The house our body/mind/soul chooses to be consciously or unconsciously

4 Planes of Experience in Sight = Expression

- Curiosity = Willpower (e.g. 1-9 or 37-45 years old)
- Intention = Clarity of Direction (e.g. 10-18 or 82 to 90)
- Purpose = Achievement (e.g. 19-27 or 55-63)
- Mastery = Abundance (e.g. 28-36 or 64-72 or 100-108)

Metaphysical Analysis:

This is how a healthy individual's boundary would look like if we were able to see the energetical blueprint under the perspective of hexagons or a box of 8*infinity boxes (every face can be divided by four to infinity, as the perspective will always zoom in to find more space to cover, as more space gets found, more /4 can be found. The Inner-World.

Outwardly(x4) same concept to infinity were balance is found. So one on a self-empowerment journey, when balance of growth is reached, they multiply their own being at every step forward, four times what they were before. If we were to over lap the 8D energy graph,

One's soul print, to be whole and integrated should look like a hexagonal cuboid in a circle with 8 slices. 4 smaller triangles where the corner is struck., showing how important emotional awareness mixed with Unconditional Love and opposite in Creative Wealth for both our Sovereign solitude and health-eye of our interconnected relationships.
