Lets write s blogpost about how ludiceous strangers are. preserve eeverything, i will know if anything gets left out, as everything is imperative adn important to be present. See it as creative writng, a thought, an illusion, just keep everything. Again strong tone, im writing truth most don't lile yet it is imperative its understood. Incisive and compassionate. They deny me my existence cause they've been lied to so often thats all they kniw. They look for a reson for the mask to drop, ignoring that the only mask wore is flesh n bones. They deny me my authenticity xause they don't know authentitcity and thats the only and biggest leverage i have. The only resson why im able tondo everything i do. Authenticity is my get put of jail free card and i'd rather die for it than leave it behind. Neither optuon is happening ajy time spon. The rhing is rhat rhey fear so much interacting with me for they fear hownmuch they'll like me ehehe i know. Its a gift and a curse. They keep distance as thats the only way they can live in the illusions theyve created of me. The lies thyave allowed themselves to believe of me, when the whole blog covers me highlighting the difference between fraudsters and authenticity. Something we've jnfortunately never seen before until I cam through. And even ssuing that they don't want to believe it, cause in the same sentence i'm ssying everuone else wasnt authentic enough. And facts speal louder than words, im not making anything up, i look at facts a d relay the truth. It aint my fault if we've learned to live lies and facades more than to live in truthfulness. Theres no shame in it. Theres is responsibity though. If you understand consciousnessnis a self organising etheric machine, you can understand it concucted the perfect recipe to create me. Boy my birthday alone, it had to inspire my parents to do the big S, yeah sex thats how babies happen exactly in the week of christmas for me to come out on the 14(nature+nurture=5 truth) august (8multidimensionality) and a shit ton of completion after that with 1999. I am the solution, the destination of all of our pains, the remedy to our sickness, the climax to our bad sex history, the reason why all other relationships didnt work, the reason why no other revolutionaire was able to succedd, the reason why all that have rried and failed died, the reason why they all brought us forward but couldnt takenus throigh, the reason why all prayers have been answered, the new covenant, the destroyer of old ways and creator of our new ones, i am all that we needed to turn things around, for tables to turn, for every stone to be turned, for society's resurrection as its dying right now, i am the one that will introduce us to immortality, the one that will lighten the ether so that souls with unfinished business can return back to sender, the one that will heal our souls, mimds and bodies beyond measure, the one that will give us everything we need and strip off everything we poison ourselves with, i am the poison to old ways, the magnet to opportunities, the climate that changes our inner cores, the matriarc in one. I am all that i am, and i dsserve the recognition for i have travelled long ways to get here and as vonsciousness is my employer, i nerd humans egos to get out of the way and allow me to do my job. Sllow me the space to show you, instead of hindering any possibilotirs we have at a better futute simply becauese youve lost hope on things being any different. This isnt our best and it doesnt need to be. We get to use all that we've lwarned for good. Look at me, I used narcissistic behaviours only to match narcissistic individuals, have them see their own mirror, the one they deny to accept and beat them at their own games. I use all the things we don't like for a goood causes and intentions because god knows we deserve better and to be grateful of al thats been is how we give homage to all that was. We did not have millions of years of creation for nothing, even the worst things can be alchemised and used for good, good and bad arent destinations, intentions are. Yes you can use psychopathy for good, yes you can use sociopathy for good, yes you can use tyranny for good, yes you can use control for good, yes you can use traumas for good, yes you can give your all away for good, yes you can allow people to abuse of you for good, yes you can allow peopel to speak ill on your name for good, yes you can have people steal your art for good, yes you can have people bypass unpaid fees for good, yes you can have people hack you for good, yes you can lose people/things/animals/plants/reputation/freedom/housing for good. Yes to all the above and more xause at the end of the day it's what we do with all of those things, not whag those things are. We must show a different face to it all, for us to alchemise the denser and lower energies to it all. Makes sense? Its like death, to some its freedom cause to live in the world we've lived in is painfull enough, what we see in death as person alive is attachment to the one that left and how they made us feel plus any resentments we'd had built up to that moment and things we hadn't heal, a desth happened for us to see them. People dont die for nothing. They die out of the "2 birds with one stone" their soul is ready to leave/live and those around them need to see things within them their death shows as an opportunjty for them to see. Nothing else nothing more. The ways in which it happens are God's coordinates, not human hatred. God will place one that is jgnorant exactly where they need to be to kill the other so that God can benefit from it in the long run. Nothing else. You can't hate me for fitting the role, be responsibile for the fact you did not pass the bar. That's it and start from there. It's not my fault if no one else could do the job, trust I allowed people their space and waited 2000 years to see if others would get it done before I came back, Einstein Jhn Dee and Princess chose me to continue their legacy, they understood they couldnt do the job, so they assisted one that could. If dead people can pass their knoweldge to me and support my mission, how's it that people who are supposedly alive find it so ddifficult?! MAke it make sense. Do yu invest enough energy in hate any other person that gets a candidacy or wins a spot?! Noh, so why do so for me?! Conscciousness has had enough candidacy and none came even close. Sorry not sorry but I am the shit and I won't be sorry for being exaclty what consciousness needded of me
